Isaac Mackie of the Fox Hills Golf Club, who began the last thirty-six holes with a clear lead of five strokes on Will Anderson, the open champion, and Bernard Nicholls, won the open professional tournament at the Van Cortlandt Park links yesterday, but only leading Will Anderson a stroke. Mackie's total was 303, and he won $150; Will Anderson, at 309, won $100; Aleok Smith, 312, won $50; Bernard Nicholls and Chris Crosby tied at 813 for two prizes of $40 and $30, and David Ogilive, 314, won the sixth prize of $20.

"Five strokes is just a comfortable lead to pull down," remarked the open champion, s the players gathered at the starting tee in morning. After the round, however Mackie was still two strokes to the good, loing 79 to Anderson's 76. In the afternoon Mackie dropped a stroke on the third, fourth nd fifth by slicing the tee shots, yet he went out in 38. Finishing Mackle was under pres-

New Haven? July 14.—In a fluky match by W. K. Shepard of the Sheffield Scientific School won the Connecticut golf championship for 1905 on the links of the New Haven country Club this afternoon, defeating R. H. liovey of Hartford, 4 up and 2 to go. This is the first time the championship has been captured by the New Haven Country Club in the seven years of the tournaments? Going out Hovey made a beautiful drive up the hill and took the first two holes. Shepard evened up the score in the next two holes, and at the turn Shepard held the lead by 2 up. At the end of the morning play Shepard was 4 up.

In the afternoon Hovey won four out of the first five holes, and it looked as though liovey with his long drives was fazing Shepard The latter, however, was 2 up at the turn. For the next five holes it was Shepard's game, he being 4 up at the four-teenth While driving down the hill for the diffeenth Hovey went into the bunker, but made the prettiest approach shot of the day, taking the hole in 3. Roof Garden Bar Case Thrown Out of Court The Central Baptist Church in West Forty-second street sent a complaint to Commissioner MoAdoo some time ago against the New Amsterdam Theater for maintaining a bar at the roof garden within 200 feet of the church. Yesterday Mark Lucscher for the theater and William Ward and Isaac Cockefair for the church appeared in the West Side court. Before either had spoken at length Magistrate Barlow asked if the bar was properly licensed. Assured that it was, the Court said:
